“We are all bound up together in one great bundle of humanity, and society cannot trample on the weakest and feeblest of its members without receiving the curse in its own soul.”

“My hands were weak, but I reached them out to feebler ones than mine, and over the shadow of my life stole the light of a peace divine.”

— Frances Ellen Watkins Harper (1825-1911), abolitionist, suffragist, teacher, writer (active in African Methodist Episcopal (AME) and Unitarian congregations)
